Terms & Conditions

1. Only WeTrade clients (hereinafter refer as "the participants") are eligible to participate in the UEFA Euro 2024 Guessing Challenge Campaign (hereinafter refer as "campaign").
2. The participants must have Reward Points to participate in this campaign.
3. This campaign has two participation modes.
 - Non-advancement result (win, draw or lose).
 - Advancement result (win or lose).
4. The outcome of the group matches is determined by the non-advancement result after the regular 90 minutes match.

5. The outcome of the Round of 16, Quarterfinals, Semifinals, and Final is determined by the advancement result after the regular 90 minutes match.

- If the match ends with a draw, the result is determined after the extra time.

- If the match ends with a draw after the extra time, the result is determined by the outcome of a penalty shootout.

6. The participants may place one or many guess order(s) in a match according to their Reward Points balance.

7. Once the participants placed the guess order(s), it cannot be cancelled or modified in any circumstance.

8. Once the match begins, participants can no longer place, modify or cancel their guess order(s) for that particular match.

9. Placing a guess order(s) may result in the loss of the participants' initial Reward Points.

10. The participants who guessed the correct winning team before the match will receive Reward Points based on the provided odds.

11. The odds displayed may vary across different guessing odds providers.

12. The guessing odds are determined by industry experts. The guessing odds may change from time to time.

WeTrade holds no opinion on the guessing odds.

13. WeTrade does not guarantee fixed guessing odds due to network delays or other technical issues from the participants' end.

14. The guessing odds are recorded when the participants successfully placed a guess order(s).

15. If participants guess correctly, WeTrade will credit the Reward Points into the participants' account within 24 hours after the match.
16. This campaign is based on Germany Time (GMT+2).
17. The time shown on WeTrade client portal and WeTrade app is adjusted according to the participants' registered location to tally with the official time.
18. If the league's official time differs, the participants need to adjust their time to avoid confusion.
19. This campaign is for entertainment purpose only. It does not involve monetary transactions.
20. If the terms and conditions of this campaign are violated, or if there are evidence of risk-free guess order(s) from an individual or group, WeTrade reserves the right to revoke the WeTrade Reward Points or invalidate the guess order(s).
21. WeTrade reserves the right to stop this campaign or modify the terms and conditions of this campaign without prior notice.
22. In case of any error in translation, the terms and conditions in English shall prevail.
